FAITH AND LOVE DEAR PARENTS AND FRIENDS

Principal James Horne

We have finally made it to the end of another successful year at Saints. All of this year's achievements affirm our pride and excitement about the mission of educating young men in the Augustinian tradition.

Our focus as a school community this year, among other things, was on encouraging Saintsmen to exercise their "Faith and Love". Through the vehicle of service, we have had the opportunity to build leadership and improve the skill sets and social networks of our students. We worked hard this year to establish and promote greater community partnerships and were recognized for our service to the San Diego homeless community at St. Vincent de Paul Village. As a group our Saintsmen have given over 25,000 hours of service to the San Diego and Tijuana region this year alone. On behalf of the administrative team, I would like to acknowledge and extend my deepest gratitude to the staff and faculty of Saints for their commitment to students during the past year. They have challenged students to strive for academic excellence, but more importantly, have helped them to grow spiritually, preparing them for the City of God and the City of Man. I would also like to thank the parents of each student, for their love, sacrifice and support. It is your nurturing encouragement and guidance that helps pave the road to success for these Saintsmen.

It is important during summer break to focus on some sense of rest and renewal. I wish you all the blessings of a relaxing summer and look forward to journeying with you again in the fall.

Yours in the Spirit of Catholic Education,

James Horne
Principal

PILGRIM'S WELCOME FOR 2019 WORLD YOUTH DAY TRIP

By Fr. Kirk Davis, O.S.A., Saints Chaplain

POPE FRANCIS will officiate an outdoor Mass at Youth Day, 2019 in Panama.

The next World Youth Day, an international event held every 2 – 3 years for Catholic young people, will be hosted by Panama in January of 2019. World Youth Day was initiated by Pope John Paul II in 1986, and is a weeklong multicultural celebration of our Catholic faith through music, prayer, art, theater, liturgy and pilgrimage... culminating with a massive outdoor Mass celebrated by Pope Francis.

The Augustinian Youth Encounter is a similar gathering but on a smaller scale, where young people have the opportunity to journey with others connected to the Augustinians from around the world. Together they explore how the charism of the Order is being lived out in their local schools, parishes, and youth groups, and they have an experience of mission together.

This January, St. Augustine High School is offering a pilgrimage to the Augustinian Youth Encounter and World Youth Day as an Intersession course open to current sophomores, juniors and seniors.

We will spend the first week of Intersession in the classroom preparing for our pilgrimage. We will depart for San Jose, Costa Rica on January 12; travel to David, Panama for the Augustinian Youth Encounter on January 14; continue on to Panama City for World Youth Day on January 21; and return to San Diego on January 29. We will be using Tijuana International Airport via the Cross Border Express terminal on the San Diego side of the border. The Campus Ministry team will accompany the group.

This will be the fourth consecutive World Youth Day pilgrimage sponsored by Saints. We anticipate bringing approximately 40 students. The cost is $1400 and includes everything except lunches on travel days. Spaces will be allotted on a first come, first served basis.

Please contact Fr. Kirk Davis kdavis@sahs.org for more information and to register.

PAROCHIAL UPDATES:

The Rule of St. Augustine

Everything you do is to be for the service of the community, and you are to work with more zeal and enthusiasm than if each person were merely working for himself and his own interests. For it is written that "it is not self-seeking" (1 Cor. 13:5); that is to say, love puts the interests of the community before personal advantage and not the other way around. Therefore the degree to which you are concerned for the interests of the community, rather than for your own, is the criterion by which you can judge how much progress you have made. Thus, in all the fleeting necessities of human life "something sublime and permanent" reveals itself, "namely love." (cf. 1 Cor. 12:31;13:13).

“WE BECAME EXPERTS IN DOING”

SALUTATORIAN ADDRESS 2018

By Jason Misleh

Jason Misleh

Good morning. As we close our Baccalaureate Mass I would like to welcome to our families, friends, teachers, faculty, Augustinian friars, members of the Class of 1968, and of course my fellow graduating Saintsmen to our graduation ceremony. Throughout these past four years my Saints brothers and I have been answering questions. Not everyone was asked the same questions, but one confronted all of us the first second we walked on campus. What are we going to do here? Upon reflection, I see we have answered this question like a good old math challenge problem; with many unique solutions but only one final answer. Here is one example of that answer. Several years ago a young girl named Kimi was diagnosed with life-threatening cancer. Being only 9 years old Kimi had much she still wished to do, but above all she wanted to learn to play guitar. Well one Saintsman of our class heard her wish, and volunteered his time and talents to teach her. He spent months with her explaining how to tune, read sheet music, and play with a pick. Even after she learned though, he pondered how he could more completely fulfill her dream. After much thought and planning, he organized a concert for Kimi to play live in front of an audience. This show was attended, in substantial numbers, by other Saintsmen coming out to support her. And the music, strummed to the tune of “Yellow Submarine,” was breath-taking. Stories like this are perfect examples of how the conviction to turn thought into action is at the heart of our Saints’ spirit. Action, guided by our faith and Augustinian values of Unitas, Veritas, and Caritas, was our answer.

Community, our first core value, was one of our class’ most remarkable achievements. We put the effort into creating that rare, enriching community that is fully welcoming, fully involved, and without social barriers.

A simple walk through campus would reveal plenty of evidence. You would see a room full of clay-caked seniors teaching each other to craft elephant-shaped teapots. You would see us practicing the trombone together and operating DJ stations. You would see lunch food experiments and once a year, jousting. We also fostered our bond through a healthy competitive spirit, as shown by our successes in academic competitions like Science Olympiad, debates like Mock Trial, and nearly continuous sporting events. Passions have never been higher than in intramural dodgeball. Together we led the Pit to be louder, prouder, and more colorful than ever. Our cheers and chants made history as they shook the walls of the new Rev. Sanders Gym for its first basketball season. Most importantly though, we collectively grew in our faith. Celebrating weekly Mass gave us time to slow down and reflect on the most important piece of our lives. By sharing in the sacraments together too we received God’s grace as a community. These experiences are what have made us a lasting family.

Furthermore, as Saintsmen we relentlessly pursued the truth. We first found truth by enhancing our intellectual horizons. For us, that went beyond what was laid out in the planner, because we actively sought out more learning. When the AP Physics C course was discontinued for a year, members of this class revived it. We also raced homemade robots, made small dogs with a 3D printer, and learned Mandarin. We pursued truth across borders, sending Saintsmen to live in Panama, intern in Waterford, and visit the Holy See in Rome. In these places and at home within our cultural clubs we explored different viewpoints and became worldly. The most valuable truths we learned however, were God’s truths. A religious education engaged us in meaningful conversations of ethics, morals, and our calling as Christians. Annual retreats like KAIROS gave us unparalleled opportunities to explore our beliefs and learn about each other in confidential, highly personal settings.

Finally, we spent four years exercising our endless capacity to love, and a love for God and His children is nowhere more apparent than at Saints. We shared our love with the poor and vulnerable by feeding the homeless at St. Vincent’s de Paul’s and visiting the Hogar Infantil orphanage. We donated our food, toys, and blood to the collections we organized. Our love for each other and those in need built up clubs like Fifa for the Orphans and Key Club.

The small and big kindnesses we did for each other every day, such as tutoring, welcoming everyone to soccer games on the field, or just listening in times of need, are the proof that Caritas permeates the air at Saints.

I could go on about how we made our Saints experience, but I could never finish.

So from all this, it is easy to see that when confronted with the question of what we would do at Saints, this class readily gave its answer, saying “We will become experts at doing good work. Amazing, inspiring, helpful, Catholic stuff.” And we have fulfilled that promise, and there is no doubt that we will continue turning thought into loving, widespread, and impactful action.

Our coming achievements will only be more spectacular and more life-changing. I am entirely confident that God’s Earth is going to look much, much better in the future because of the Saints Class of 2018. Thank you, and congratulations to the Class of 2018.

PAST, PRESENT AND FUTURE CAPSULIZING THE SAINTS EXPERIENCE

By Steve Chipp, ('68)
Executive Director of Finance and Facilities
Director, Saints Alumni Association

Steve Chipp

American businessman Harvey MacKay said “a great accomplishment shouldn’t be the end of the road, just the starting point for the next leap forward.” Each of you will now be taking that next leap forward as you all intend to pursue further academic opportunities. And your class has earned an impressive $1.5 million in scholarships and grants to help you along the way.

You should be, as the entire Saints community is, proud of your accomplishments.

For those who don’t know me, I’m a member of Saints class of 1968 celebrating my 50th reunion with my fellow classmates. I graduated from Santa Clara University and for the past 42 years I’ve served as Saints Director of Finance & Facilities. During 30 of those years I had the pleasure of also being the Director of the Alumni Association.

Saints has changed a lot over 50 years. In our time there were five girl cheerleaders – one representing each of the five all-girl high schools in San Diego. And parents, I’m glad most of you are sitting down, tuition when we were students was under $400 per year.

We attended classes in Sheehan Hall and Sullivan Hall. Our science labs were over in Vasey Hall. We played intramurals on the lower athletic field and Bancroft St. cut through the center of campus. Dougherty gym is where we celebrated our Baccalaureate Mass.

Our weight training facility, if you’d call it that, was outside at a corner of the football field. Equipment consisted of concrete filled coffee cans attached to either end of a metal bar. Not much to brag about, I know, but our football team did play for the CIF championship that year.

Of course now we have Villanova and Mendel Halls, The St. Augustine Commons, and we’ll soon be moving into our new weight room and the Raymond Center for the Performing Arts.

But what hasn’t changed and has remained constant throughout the years is the spirit of brotherhood every Saintsman has experienced. Yes, brick and mortar are essential to a school’s physical well being. But it’s what goes on inside the walls and on the fields that makes Saints so special.

It’s the teachers, coaches, staff, mentors, administrators, the entire student body, and yes our alumni that give a pulse to the heartbeat of our core values of Unity, Truth, and Love. It’s this personal interaction that creates that unique bonding and helps define the Saints Experience.

My 1968 student handbook states: “St. Augustine represents an answer to a common desire of parents as well as students for an education embracing the whole realm of truth that the young must know.” By that definition, what Saints represents really hasn’t changed over time.

Perhaps like me, you won’t fully realize the meaning of the Saints Experience until you go out to the 143 various colleges and universities you plan to attend, meet new classmates, make new friends, and swap stories of your high school experiences. It’s then, you will come to know your high school truly was, and still is, something special.

Four years ago at about this time, you were sitting at your 8th grade graduation ceremonies and awaiting to enter the world of “The Saints Experience.” As you leave today you can now say that you have “experienced Saints”.

But your Saints experience doesn’t end today. Today you now become the newest members of the St. Augustine High School Alumni Association—an even larger brotherhood that is ageless and lasts a lifetime.

As Alumni Director I attended countless class reunions and for any number of reasons attendance kept getting smaller, and smaller as the years progressed.

There’s a saying that no one who comes into this world goes out alive. None of us knows when God will call us to join him.

So before leaving today take this opportunity to acknowledge and thank those people, including your classmates, who have been important to you over the past four years.

Most importantly, be sure to thank your parents. They have been an integral part of your experience at Saints. They gave up their time, invested their money, and probably lost some sleep along the way to make this day become a reality for you. Be sure you show them your love and appreciation.

In closing, the great author Mark Twain said “success is a journey, not a destination.” As you move forward on your life’s journey some of you will leave San Diego and some will stay. Some of you will one day return to work at Saints as I and so many other graduates have. Some of you will become parents of future Saintsmen; or maybe not.

I hoped one day I’d watch a son of mine go through the Saint’s Experience but God had other plans for me and my wife. He blessed us with 2 daughters and 5 granddaughters – and they are the loves of our life.

But no matter where life’s road takes you, know that Saints has given you the experiences necessary to succeed in your journey. And along the road always remember this: success is not the key to happiness, happiness is the key to success.

May each of your futures be filled with an abundance of both. Congratulations, Class of 2018. God bless you all.
